

Genetics PhD Program Student Retreat Wednesday, November 18, 2015

9:00 AM	Old Capitol Museum	Poster Setup
9:30 AM	Old Capitol Museum	Welcome Bridget Lear, PhD, Retreat Chair
9:40 AM	Old Capitol Museum	Student Oral Presentations – Session I Samuel Trammell (Biochemistry, Brenner Lab) Melissa Marchal (Biology, Houston Lab)
10:20 AM	Old Capitol Museum	Poster Session I – Odd Numbered Posters
11:20 AM	Old Capitol Museum	Break
11:30 AM	Old Capitol Museum	Introduction of Alumnus Speaker ( Stephanie Haase ) Bridget Riley-Gillis, PhD Director, Project Management New York Genome Center “One perspective: a non-traditional career in genetics and genomics”
12:00 PM	W401 PBB	Student Lunch with Alumnus Speaker
1:15 PM	Old Capitol Museum	Student Oral Presentations – Session II Fengxiao Bu (Otolaryngology, Smith Lab) Lisa Harney (Biology, Manak Lab) Eric Monson (Psychiatry Willour Lab)
2:15 PM	Old Capitol Museum	Poster Session II – Even Numbered Posters
3:15 PM	Old Capitol Museum	Break
3:30 PM	Old Capitol Museum	Introduction of Keynote Speaker ( Patrick Lansdon ) Suzanne M. Leal, PhD Professor Director, Center for Statistical Genetics Department of Molecular and Human Genetics Baylor College of Medicine “Methods for Analyzing Sequence Data for Complex and Mendelian Traits”
4:45 PM	Old Capitol Museum	Announcement of Oral Presentation & Poster Awards
5:30 PM	Bread Garden	Student Dinner with Keynote Guest Speaker

Interdisciplinary
Graduate Program
in Genetics

Individuals with disabilities are encouraged to attend all University of Iowa sponsored events. If you are a person with a disability who requires a reasonable accommodation in order to participate in this program, please contact the Genetics Program Office in advance at 319-335-9968.